Chapter 11

Debtor.

DECLARATION OF JOHN W. KEEFE PURSUANT TO RULE 1007-4 OF THE LOCAL BANKRUPTCY RULES FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

John W. Keefe declares under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that:

1. I am a Vice President of Community Environmental Center, Inc. (“CEC”), a domestic not-for-profit corporation formed under and pursuant to the laws of the state of New York and the debtor and debtor in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the “Debtor”). In this capacity, I am generally familiar with the Debtor’s day-to-day operations, business, and financial affairs.
2. I submit this declaration (“Declaration”) pursuant to Rule 1007-4 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Eastern District of New York (the “Local Rules”) to assist this Court and other parties in interest in understanding the circumstances giving rise to the commencement of this chapter 11 case.
3. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge and/or information provided to me concerning the Debtor’s operations and financial affairs. If called upon to testify, I would testify competently to the facts set forth herein. I am authorized to submit this Declaration on the Debtor’s behalf.

Business Overview

4. The Debtor was founded in 1994 by Richard M. Cherry, who served as its President and Chief Executive Officer until September 26, 2014. The Debtor was the first not-for-profit organization in New York City to implement energy efficiency programs for housing and community development. The Debtor grew to become the largest supplier of weatherization services under New York State's Weatherization Assistance Program ("WAP"), an approved provider of the energy efficiency programs of the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority, and a pioneer in the use of cellulose insulation and solar hot water systems in New York City buildings.

5. From 1994 to 2011, the Debtor retrofitted 17,752 housing units through WAP. From 2010 to 2011, the Debtor brought weatherization to an additional 9,611 low-income families through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

6. As a domestic not-for-profit corporation, the Debtor receives the majority of its funding from state and federal grants. At its peak in 2012, the Debtor received nearly $30 million in grants and employed over 200 people. In 2013, however, the federal funds available to environmental programs were cut drastically, and the Debtor received only $3 million in grant funds for the year. This reduction in funding had devastating effects on the Debtor's operations. From 2013 to 2014, the Debtor was forced to lay off over 170 employees and scale back its programs to match its limited resources.

7. During this time, the Debtor could no longer satisfy its obligations as they became due and, consequently, began to accumulate a significant amount of debt. Although the Debtor attempted to reorganize and continue operations on a smaller scale, it reached a breaking point when New York State Homes and Community Renewal ("HCR"), one of its key remaining partners, cancelled its contract with the Debtor. Consequently, the Debtor could no longer afford to pay the rent for its offices located at 22-09 Queens Plaza North, Long Island City, NY 11101 and it was subsequently evicted from that space. As of December 8, 2014, the Debtor's books and records reflect total assets of approximately $815,000 and total liabilities of approximately $5.3 million.

8. Although most of the Debtor's programs have ceased operations, an affiliate and a separate division continue to operate: (a) CEC Stuyvesant Cove, Inc. d/b/a Solar One ("Solar One"), an independently operated domestic not-for-profit corporation whose sole membership interest is held by the Debtor, and (b) Build It Green! NYC ("Build it Green"), which is a program run by the Debtor.

9. Solar One runs programs that deliver environmental education programming to New Yorkers of all ages. It also manages Stuyvesant Cove Park, an architect-designed, sustainably managed two-acre park on land that was once an abandoned industrial site. Stuyvesant Cove Park now is home to hundreds of indigenous plants, flowers, trees, and berry bushes, and a site for many free public events.

10. The Build it Green program runs a retail outlet for salvaged and surplus building materials. It accepts donated building materials and sells them to the public for a deeply discounted price, which reduces greenhouse gases by keeping materials out of the waste system. The program operates out of two warehouse locations leased by the Debtor: (a) 3-17 26th Ave., Queens, NY 11102; and (b) 69 9th St., Brooklyn, NY 11215 (together, the "Warehouses").

11. As of the date hereof, the Debtor owes JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase") approximately $1.8 million, of which approximately $1.3 million is on account of direct loans to the Debtor. The balance is on account of a direct loan to Solar One.

12. Pursuant to a Commercial Security Agreement dated September 20, 2011, the Debtor granted Chase a blanket first priority security interest in all of its personal property to secure its obligation to repay its loan from Chase and its obligations as a guarantor of Chase's loan to Solar One. Pursuant to a Commercial Security Agreement dated September 20, 2011, Solar One granted Chase a blanket first priority security interest in all of its personal property to secure its obligation to repay its loan from Chase and its obligations as a guarantor of Chase's loans to the Debtor.

13. On September 26, 2014, Chase commenced an action in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Queens against the Debtor and Solar One, alleging various claims based on their failure to meet their respective obligations under the loan agreements and commercial guarantees titled JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. v Community Environmental Center, Inc. d/b/a Build it Green, and CEC Stuyvesant Cove, Inc. d/b/a Solar One d/b/a Solar 1 (No. 706971/2014) (the "Action").

14. The Debtor, Solar One, and Chase are in settlement negotiations to settle the Action. The Debtor intends to submit a proposed settlement agreement and order for this Court's approval shortly following the date the bankruptcy petition is filed.

15. Significant efforts have been made and are ongoing to preserve for the NYC community the substantial environmental benefits the Build it Green program has provided, and to ensure its key operations can continue without interruption, albeit by a new, standalone, unaffiliated not-for-profit corporation. To accomplish this objective, an employee of CEC has incorporated a new not-for-profit corporation, BIG Initiatives Incorporated, and has proposed to acquire, in an arms-length transaction, certain of the Debtor's assets that were a part of the Build it Green program and to assume certain of the Debtor's obligations under the leases for the Warehouses, in a sale, for which approval of the Court will be sought, pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

16. The Debtor commenced its chapter 11 case to afford it a centralized forum to structure a court-approved settlement agreement with Chase and Solar One, to provide a forum for the Debtor to sell its Build it Green program related assets (the proceeds of which sale will be distributed to Chase pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement to be submitted to the Court for approval), and to restructure its remaining obligations. The Debtor believes that chapter 11 will be in the best interests of its estate and all creditors.
